AUTHOR(S), OR EMPLOYER(S) IN THE CASE OF WORKS MADE FOR HIRE, RETAIN THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

1. All proprietary rights, other than copyright, such as patent rights.
2. The right to use all or portions of the paper in oral presentations.
3. The right to make limited distribution of the paper, or portions thereof, prior to publication.
4. Royalty-free permission to reproduce the paper for personal use or, in the case of a work made for hire, the employer's use, provided that (a) the source and notice of the MS&T19 Organizers' copyright are provided, (b) the copies are not used in a way that implies endorsement by the MS&T19 Organizers of a product or service, and (c) the copies are not offered for sale.
5. In the case of work performed under U.S. Government contract, the MS&T19 Organizers grant the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the paper, and to authorize others to do so for U.S. Government purposes.

PART B – U.S. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE CERTIFICATION

Note: If this work was performed under U.S. Government contract, but you are not a U.S. Government employee, you must sign part A of this form.

I hereby certify that all authors of the paper cited on this form are employees of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of their employment, and that the paper is therefore not subject to the U.S. Copyright protection.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

- Work made for hire:* If you are an employee and your paper was prepared as part of your job, the copyright to the paper belongs to your employer. If you as an author sign the copyright transfer form, you represent that you are authorized by your employer to do so and that your employer has consented to all the terms and conditions of this form. If not, it must be signed by someone so authorized.
- Joint authorship:* For jointly authored papers, only one signature is required if all authors work for the same company; the paper thus is a work made for hire, the copyright rests with the employer rather than the individual authors, and anyone authorized by the employer may authorize the copyright transfer. When the authors work for different employers, a separate copyright transfer form must be signed by the authorized agent for each employer. When authors are self-employed, each must sign a separate copyright transfer form. Co-authors who are U.S. Government employees are not required to sign this form, but any co-authors outside the U.S. Government must sign Part A.
- Work performed under U.S. Government contract:* Authors whose work was performed under U.S. Government contract, but who are not employees of the U.S. Government, are required to sign Part A. Item 5 of Part A returns the reproduction rights to the U.S. Government when required for U.S. Government purposes, while retaining the MS&T19 Organizers' copyright protection with respect to reuse of the material by the general public.
- MS&T19 Organizers' policy on assignment of copyright:* As a convenience and courtesy to the technical community, the MS&T19 Organizers will routinely grant permission upon request to authors to use portions of works by other authors for which copyright has been transferred to the Organizers. The MS&T19 Organizers reserve the right to use any parts or the entire paper in revised editions, derivative works, etc.

PUBLISHER INDEMNITY

The author agrees that the article has not been previously submitted for publication or published elsewhere. Further, the author agrees that the article is original and that it contains no matter which is libelous, obscene, or infringes any existing right of privacy, copyright, trademark or any other statutory or common law proprietary or civil right and is not otherwise unlawful. The author agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold the MS&T19 Organizers and their directors, officers, employees, and agents harmless against any claims to the contrary.

SUBMISSION OF FORM

Copyright transfer forms will be collected electronically on the ProgramMaster site when the article is uploaded.
