Do you work or study in any of the STEMM fields? Do you identify as a woman or gender diverse individual? Sign-up and get discovered for opportunities gage.500womenscientists.org.

WHY YOU

It is time for the overrepresentation of cis-men in science and leadership roles to end. We want you—women, transgender, gender non-conforming, nonbinary & gender diverse people to have opportunities to lead, to mentor and find mentors, to have your voices heard and to let the world discover your brilliance.

WHY GAGE

Gage is a global search platform—founded and run by 500 Women Scientists—where journalists, media outlets, conference planners and others can discover women and gender diverse experts in science, technology, engineering, mathematics and medicine (STEMM). Join today to get contacted for opportunities!
